

ANNUAL REPORT HIGHLIGHTS 2021

www.unescoghana.gov.gh

unesco

Ghana Commission

A world map in a dark blue color, overlaid on a lighter blue background. Numerous small pink dots are scattered across the map, representing various locations. The quote is centered over the map.

“

Since wars begin in the minds of men, it is in the minds of men that the defences of peace must be constructed.

”

UNESCO Constitution (1945)

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTORY NOTE	2
ABOUT THE GHANA COMMISSION FOR UNESCO	3
Governance	3
Specialized Committees	3
National Intergovernmental Committees	4
Secretariat	4
HIGHLIGHTS OF 2021 ACTIVITIES	5
UNESCO Surveys, Reports and Consultations	6
Statutory Meetings	7
UNESCO Meetings and Conferences	7
Participation Programme	7-8
National Committees	8
Programme Specialized Committees	8
The Ghana Commission for UNESCO Act	8
5-Year Strategic Plan (2022 - 2026)	8
Bids, Awards and Prizes	8
PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS	9
EDUCATION	10-11
NATURAL SCIENCES	12-13
SOCIAL & HUMAN SCIENCES (SHS)	13
CULTURE	14-15
COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION	16-17
OUTLOOK FOR 2022	18

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The Ghana Commission for UNESCO is a specialized agency of the Government of Ghana that serves as the official link between UNESCO and Ghana as a Member State of the Organization. UNESCO aims at contributing to global peace and security by promoting cooperation among nations and people through Education, the Sciences (Natural, Social and Human), Culture, Communication, and Information.

In performing its mandate of coordinating the relations between the Government of Ghana and UNESCO, the Commission set out in 2021 to advance international cooperation between Ghana and its partners in UNESCO's fields of competence, promote UNESCO's global agenda and ensure an increase in Ghana's contributions to UNESCO. The Commission has also made an impact with its work through peace-promotion and capacity-building activities.

As an outlook for 2021, we planned to continue to fulfil our mandate but undertake the following activities:

- Promote 2030 SDG Agenda in UNESCO's fields of competence.
- Promote activities within the delivery of quality education, peacebuilding, sustainable development.
- Participate in the 211th, 212th and 213th Sessions of the Executive Board of UNESCO as well as other UNESCO fora.
- Participate in the 41st General Conference of UNESCO.
- Build the capacity of staff of the Secretariat with the requisite skills to increase productivity.
- Develop the Commission's Strategic Plan.
- Acquire an Act of Parliament for the Commission.
- Monitor the implementation of UNESCO's projects in Ghana.

This report showcases our achievements over the past year. We thank all our partners for their continued support and invite you to partner with us in the coming year.

AMA SERWAH NERQUAYE-TETTEH
SECRETARY-GENERAL

ABOUT THE GHANA COMMISSION FOR UNESCO

The Ghana Commission for UNESCO is a specialized agency of government with the mandate to foster multilateral relations between UNESCO and its Member States and Ghana. National Commissions are unique institutions found in all Member States of UNESCO.

The Government of Ghana recognizes UNESCO as a long-term strategic partner in support of achieving Ghana's national development plans and priorities.

The Ghana Commission for UNESCO exists to localize the ideals of UNESCO in Ghana through UNESCO's five fields of competence to broker peace. The Ghana Commission for UNESCO works closely with a diverse range of partners – national and regional governments, ministries, departments, and agencies, other UN agencies, international and bilateral development partners, local and international NGOs, local civil society, academia, the media, and communities.

The Commission performs the following functions:

- 1. Acts as an advisory body to the government in determining policies about UNESCO and its programmes.
- 2. Serves as a liaison agency by involving Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs) in UNESCO activities for the advancement of Education, the Sciences, Culture and Communication, with the aim of advancing mutual knowledge and understanding of UNESCO's work towards the common welfare of humankind.
- 3. Disseminates information from and to UNESCO.
- 4. Exchanges information and experiences with its counterparts in Member States of the Organization.
- 5. Fosters close co-operation between state agencies and services, professionals, and other universities as well General Conferences and other inter-governmental meetings convened by UNESCO, in the preparations of Ghana's position papers by preparing the contribution of Government to the work of these meetings.
- 6. Participates in the search for candidates for vacant UNESCO posts financed under the regular programme or from extra- budgetary resources, and in the placement of UNESCO Fellowship holders.
- 7. Participates in the planning and execution of activities entrusted to UNESCO which are undertaken with the assistance of the United Nations in Ghana.

GOVERNANCE

The Ghana Commission for UNESCO presently comprises at least thirty-five (35) members drawn from relevant Ministries, Departments, Agencies, institutions as well as non-governmental organizations in Ghana. The Commission meets in plenary session twice a year, preferably March/April and September/October.

The Hon. Minister for Education is the Chairman of the Commission and the coordinating minister responsible for UNESCO Affairs in Ghana. He is the leader of all Ghana's delegation to UNESCO activities.

SPECIALIZED COMMITTEES

There are six (6) Programme Specialized Committees which reflect the main fields of competence of UNESCO in Ghana, namely Education, Natural Science, Social & Human Science, Culture, Communication & Information and Legal & Administration. The members of each of the programme specialized committee are selected from government and non-governmental organizations.

The Committees, comprising nine (9) members each, provide expert advice relating to their sectors and help the Secretariat to prepare draft briefs for Ghana delegations to UNESCO Executive Board and General Conference Sessions. The Programme Specialized Committees meet as and when necessary.

ABOUT THE GHANA COMMISSION FOR UNESCO

NATIONAL INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEES

The National Intergovernmental Committees are the Commission's resource of experts drawn from various governmental and non-governmental agencies. They are involved in projects implemented by the Commission either as implementers or advisors. They are responsible for advising Government on UNESCO technical issues. These are the:

INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEE	FUNCTION
National Committee for the Man and Biosphere (MAB) Programme	Handles environmental issues
National Committee for the International Oceanographic Committee (IOC)	Handles marine water issues
National Committee for the International Hydrological Programme (IHP)	Handles freshwater issues
National Bioethics Committee (NBC)	Handles issues on bioethics

INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMITTEE	FUNCTION
National Heritage Committee (NHC)	Issues on heritage
National Committee for the Information for All Programme (IFAP)	Handles issues on communication
National Committee for the Management of Social Transformation (MOST)	Handles social issues
Memory of the World Programme National Committee	Handles Documentary Heritage

SECRETARIAT

At the operational level, a National Secretariat is headed by a Secretary-General, who serves as the Secretary to the Commission and the main channel of communication between the Government of Ghana and UNESCO. There are programme officers in charge of the five areas of expertise as well as External Programme Matters and Administration.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2021 ACTIVITIES

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2021 ACTIVITIES

With the impact of COVID-19 still being felt in 2021, the work of the Commission, which normally would involve in-person activities, carried on via remote working for the first quarter of the year.

With the COVID-19 pandemic still raging as we entered 2021, the Commission resolved to carry on its activities utilizing technology for online meetings and later, when the situation permitted, gradually easing into face-to-face activities. We continued to be an active member of the UNESCO Executive Board, joining and contributing to both its virtual and in-person meetings.

We highlight some activities below.

GHANA'S PRESIDENT VISITS UNESCO

It was a moment of pride for us at the Commission when Ghana's President, Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo-Addo, joined other Heads of States to address the 75th Anniversary of UNESCO in a special ceremony held at the UNESCO headquarters in Paris, France on 12th November, 2021. His speech centred on UNESCO's contribution to Ghana but also Ghana's contribution to UNESCO and to its work globally.

UNESCO SURVEYS, REPORTS & CONSULTATIONS

It is part of our mandate to ensure Ghana's participation in consultations, surveys and to submit reports on normative instruments.

- Ghana successfully completed and submitted her first report on the Implementation of the Recommendation on Science and Scientific Researchers in 2017 through the CSIR-STEPRI.
- The Commission supported the Ministry of Youth and Sports in completing the State Parties Report to the International Convention Against Doping in Sport for 2020 and 2021.
- A survey was completed on the Film Industry in Ghana with the help of the Film Producers Association of Ghana (FIPAG).

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2021 ACTIVITIES

- A survey on Underwater Cultural Heritage was also conducted with the support of the Ghana Museums and Monuments Board (GMMB).
- Ghana completed its quadrennial report of the 2005 Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions.
- We also facilitated the completion of a survey on Public Access to Information (SDG 16.10.2) by the Ghana Statistical Service and the Ministry of Information.

STATUTORY MEETINGS

The Commission coordinated Ghana's participation in UNESCO meetings as a member state and as a member of the UNESCO Executive Board. High-powered delegations, led by His Excellency the President and the Honourable Minister for Education, represented Ghana at these meetings in Paris, France where UNESCO is headquartered.

-
- 211th Session of the UNESCO Executive Board
 - 212th Session of the UNESCO Executive Board
 - 41st Session of the UNESCO General Conference
-

UNESCO MEETINGS & CONFERENCES

The Commission supported various government agencies, ministries, institutions, and the public to successfully participate in UNESCO meetings virtually and in-person and monitored follow-up actions accordingly. These included:

- A sub-regional meeting with the Secretaries-General of National Commissions for UNESCO in the West Africa Sub-region to introduce the newly designated IEPA as a UNESCO Category II Centre of Excellence.
- A West Africa Regional consultation for the Windhoek+30 Declaration on Press Freedom.
- Online consultations to revitalize the African Regional Memory of the world committees the Memory of the World program in Africa.
- Regional Consultations in Africa for the preparation of the Global Action Plan for the International Decade of Indigenous Languages.
- UNESCO World Conference on Education for Sustainable Development.
- Africa Regional Consultation to Promote ESD For 2030.
- "Water, Gender, and Climate Change in West Africa: Better Data for Better Adaptation Strategies" Capacity Development Programme.
- Intellectual Property Rights and Open Science.

- UN High-Level Side Event on STI for SDG Roadmaps.
- Open Webinar on Fair, Equitable, and Timely Access of COVID-19 Vaccines.
- The General History of Africa Conference.
- The 8th session of the 2005 Convention on the protection and Promotion of diversity of Cultural Expressions.
- The 6th Session of the 1970 Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property.
- Stakeholders Conference on the Ashanti Traditional Buildings.
- Training workshop to prepare a management plan for the Forts and Castles in Ghana with GMMB.
- Workshop on the 1970 Convention on the Means of Prohibiting and Preventing the Illicit Import, Export and Transfer of Ownership of Cultural Property.
- Workshop on the 2001 Convention for the Preservation of Underwater Cultural Heritage.
- Validation workshop for the Multi-Stakeholder Heritage Strategic Framework with Ghana Heritage Committee.
- Regional Consultations in Africa for the Preparation of the Global Action Plan for the International Decade of Indigenous Languages.

PARTICIPATION PROGRAMME

It is also our role to monitor projects in country being carried out by UNESCO and supervise Participation Programme activities.

Under the UNESCO Participation Programme, Ghana secured six (6) projects:

- Education Project: Focusing on Drug Free Sport Among the Youth - National Anti-Doping Committee, Ministry of Youth and Sports.
- Clean Oceans - Protecting marine life: Environmentally sound management of plastic waste in Ghana.
- ICT Skills for Entrepreneurial and Women Empowerment - Ghana Investment Fund for Electronic Communications (GIFEC).
- Biosphere Reserves and Ecosystem Services Integration for Sustainable Development in Ghana - Ghana National MAB Committee (Environmental Protection Agency).

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2021 ACTIVITIES

- Establishment of Functional IHP National Committee and Sensitization on Programmes – Ghana National IHP Committee (Water Resources Commission).
- Building a Comprehensive Non-Formal Education Policy - Complementary Education Agency.

The Commission further supported the implementation of the following projects:

- CSIR-STEPRI-led STI for SDGs Roadmap Development.
- Increasing the Intergovernmental Hydrological Programme's Knowledge Base at the Water Resources Commission.
- CSIR-STEPRI is also leading a project called "Strengthening STI Systems for Sustainable Development in Africa".

The Participation Programme (PP) of UNESCO is a medium through which UNESCO partners Member States in implementing projects initiated by Member States themselves which are in line with UNESCO's programme for the biennium and in which the project is being

NATIONAL COMMITTEES

National Committees serve to further the work of UNESCO's intergovernmental committees locally. They operate under the auspices of the National Commission. In 2021, the Commission continued its mission to reconstitute and revitalize Ghana's National Committees.

- We reconstituted the National Committee for the Memory of the World Programme to ensure widespread and lasting access to documentary material and the preservation of it.
- We reconstituted and relaunched the National Committee of the International Hydrological Programme.
- The National Committee of the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission (IOC) continued its work.
- The National Committee of the Man and the Biosphere (MAB) continued its work.

The National Commission has also met twice in the period under review for its 40/2 and 41/1 meetings.

PROGRAMME SPECIALIZED COMMITTEES

The Commission successfully organized Programme Specialized Committee meetings to consider, among other things, agenda items of the 211th and 212th Session of the UNESCO Executive Board as well as the 41st Session of the UNESCO General Conference.

THE GHANA COMMISSION FOR UNESCO ACT

A series of activities were held in our march towards a legislative Act. Our Bill is currently gazetted to be put before Parliament for consideration.

5-YEAR STRATEGIC PLAN (2022 - 2026)

The Commission has developed a 5-year Strategic Plan envisaged to commence in 2022. The Plan seeks to strategically position the Commission to make an IMPACT and have INFLUENCE in its areas of competence.

BIDS, AWARDS & PRIZES

- Together with the Accra Metropolitan Assembly, the Ghana Book Development Council and other partners, the Commission facilitated the preparation of the application dossier of the Ghana Book Development Council for Accra's designation as the World Book Capital for 2023. Accra has successfully been designated as the World Book Capital for 2023 and will put up a series of activities to commemorate the year.
- The Commission also successfully facilitated the designation of the Technology Consultancy Centre of KNUST as a UNESCO Category II of Excellence.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_EDUCATION

The Commission operates in the areas of expertise that UNESCO has set out for itself. These are, Education, Natural Sciences, Social and Human Science, Culture, Communication, and Information.

Below are some activity highlights.

EDUCATION

The sector is responsible for providing support for Ghana's quest to attain SDG 4 in the areas that UNESCO has expertise in.

In 2021, the conversation towards the accomplishment of SDG 4 continued. The Education Section commemorated the following international days:

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR EDUCATION 24th JANUARY

- The Commission in collaboration with the Institute for Education Planning and Administration (IEPA), Ghana Education Service (GES), and the Ghana National Education Campaign Coalition (GNECC), commemorated the day to take stock of the government's COVID-19 Education Response and Schools reopening: the success, challenges, and lessons learned.
- A Youth Parliament was organized for students who have completed Junior High School (JHS) to discuss various issues on the theme and create awareness of the day.
- The Commission further joined other stakeholders in Education (MOE, GES, ILO, UNAIDS, UNESCO, UNFPA, UNICEF, UNHCR, UNU, and WFP) to commemorate the Day on 26th January by issuing a joint statement.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS EDUCATION

GLOBAL HANDWASHING DAY 15th December

The Commission supported the McCarthy Hill School to mark the day. Students at the school, with guidance from their teachers, produced liquid soap to donate to their community while creating awareness of the day and the importance of hygiene.

INTERNATIONAL DAY AGAINST VIOLENCE & BULLYING INCLUDING CYBERBULLYING 4th November

The Commission engaged students of the Bethany Methodist JHS (Dzorwulu), Maamobi Prisons Basic (Roman Ridge), and La Bawaleshie Presby (East Legon) in interactive talks on school-related violence and the whole-school approach in intervening, preventing, and addressing violence in schools.

WORLD AIDS DAY 1st December

The Commission co-organized an outreach programme with the Ministry of Education, the HIV & AIDS Secretariat, and the Narcotics Control Commission at the Accra Technical Training Centre (ATTC) on December 1, 2021.

The outreach featured talks on drug abuse and addiction and the increasing rate of HIV & AIDS in the country.

UNESCO CLUB ORIENTATION AT ACCRA TECHNICAL TRAINING CENTRE (ATTC)

The Sector also engaged students of the Accra Technical Training Centre (ATTC) on 14th October in an orientation session to discuss issues on application, membership, and operations of the Club.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_NATURAL SCIENCES

This sector supports the government and other institutions in the area of Natural sciences, especially in the areas of Biodiversity Conservation, Science, Technology and Innovation, Fresh Water and Ocean governance, Basic Sciences and Science Education.

The Natural Sciences Section commemorated the following international days:

WORLD
ENGINEERING
DAY FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

WORLD ENGINEERING DAY FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT 9th March

This day was used to highlight the contribution of engineers to the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals. The Commission, in partnership with the College of Engineering at KNUST and the Ghana Engineering Students Association (GESA) of KNUST, commemorated the day on 9th March in Kumasi.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF LIGHT 19th May

The Commission collaborated with the Laser and Fibre Optics Centre (LAFOC) of the University of Cape Coast and the Head of State Award Scheme to commemorate the day with a webinar and an exhibition.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF MATHEMATICS
MARCH 14

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF MATHEMATICS 14th March

In partnership with AIMS-Ghana, the Commission marked the 2021 International Day of Mathematics. A virtual forum was organised to create awareness of the importance of mathematics in developing our country.

The theme for this year's event was "Mathematics for a Better World". The Keynote address was given by the hon. minister for Education.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_NATURAL SCIENCES

INTERNATIONAL DAY FOR WOMEN & GIRLS IN SCIENCE 11th February

This year's edition of the International Day for Women and Girls in Science was spearheaded by Olam Ghana, a cocoa processing company. The celebration, which featured a virtual event, was on the theme 'Aspire to Inspire for Impact: Women & Girls in Science'.

Additionally, a radio interview was granted by a Commissioner, Emerita Prof. Isabella Quakyi, on EGM TV on the significance of the day and the contribution of women to the development of vaccines.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_SOCIAL & HUMAN SCIENCES (SHS)

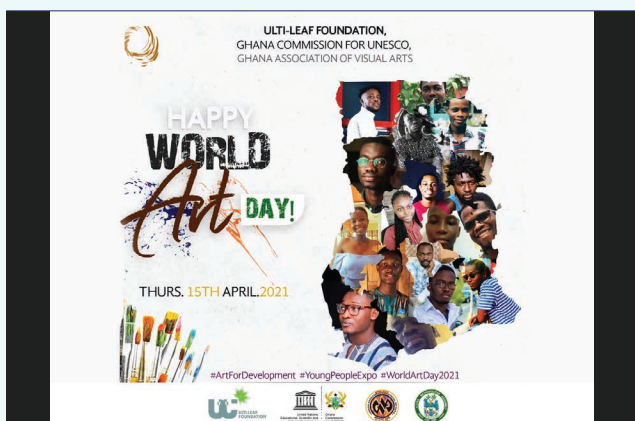

This sector promotes UNESCO's work against increasing global challenges and threats, such as inequality, exclusion, violence and sectarianism worsened by local tensions and conflicts which undermine humanity's cohesion, learning to live together and fostering rights, inclusion and non-discrimination.

The sector, in addition to the conferences and projects, observed the following international days.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH DAY

The Commission also participated in the 2021 International Youth Day with the National Youth Authority, Tech Farm Hub, MTN, GIFEC, FAPIMA, and other partners on August 16, 2021.

WORLD ART DAY

The World Art Day was commemorated from 15th of April to the 24th of April 2020 with a social media storm of various art works in partnership with the ULTI-LEAF foundation, as well as the United Nations Information Centre UNIC and the Ghana Association of Visual Artists GAVA.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_CULTURE

The Culture Section of the Commission, in line with UNESCO's aim of ensuring that culture takes its rightful place in development strategies and processes, assists Government agencies, and facilitates programmes that will enable Ghana to fulfill its requirements with respect to the conventions, safeguarding heritage, strengthening creative industries, and encouraging cultural pluralism.

The highlights of the Culture Sector for 2021 are outlined below:

- The Commission undertook a field visit to some of the enlisted Forts and Castles as well as the Ashanti Traditional Buildings to assess their state.
- Ghana, on 1st March, signed onto the 1995 UNIDROIT Convention on Stolen or illegally Exported Cultural Properties.

WORLD POETRY DAY 21st MARCH

The Commission in partnership with Poet Aloud organized a week-long celebration on the relevance of poetry in sustainable development. The event featured a series of panel talks, radio and television shows. The main event however was held virtually on March 21st, 2021 to celebrate World Poetry Day.

INTERNATIONAL JAZZ DAY 14TH MAY

The Commission, in collaboration with Mevicon Services, celebrated this day at the Goethe Institute amidst musical performances by renowned musicians.

VALIDATION WORKSHOP: MULTI-STAKEHOLDER HERITAGE STRATEGIC FRAMEWORK FOR GHANA

Under the auspices of the Commission, the Ghana Heritage Committee in partnership with MOTAC, GTA, and the French Embassy organized a workshop to validate the first-ever Multi-Stakeholder Heritage Strategic Framework in West Africa for Ghana. The workshop was organized on the 7th of December at the Accra Tourist Information Center. The Framework which will be launched on Thursday, 16th December 2021, will serve as a national strategic blueprint from which all stakeholder institutions will draw their annual action plans and programs.

The Commission in partnership with Ghana Culture Forum and UNESCO Accra Office organized a two-day transboundary workshop on 11th and 12th October for Ghana and Nigeria with the view of building the capacity of institutions that apply for the fund.

[illegible]

At the initiative of UNESCO GHANA and Ghana National Commission for UNESCO, the Commission on Culture (NCC) on 9th June 2021 organized World Day for Cultural Diversity for Dialogue and Development. The objective of this symposium was among others to promote culture and highlight the significance of its diversity as an agent of inclusion and positive change.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_ COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION

The major goal of the Communication and Information Section is to provide an enabling environment for freedom of speech, press freedom, the safety of journalists as well as facilitate plurality and involvement in the media and to support sustainable and independent media organizations.

As part of fulfilling its mandate, the CI Section launched the National Committee for the Memory of the World Programme to ensure widespread and lasting access to documentary material and the preservation of it.

WORLD RADIO DAY 13th FEBRUARY

The day was commemorated with a seminar co-hosted by the Ghana Institute of Journalism and the Ghana Journalists Association, on the theme "New World, New Radio - Evolution, Innovation, Connection".

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY 21st FEBRUARY

This year's edition, which is also the 3rd edition of the annual festival of Ghanaian languages, Sanegbaa, was jointly with the Bureau of Ghana Languages and with support from Kantanka TV. Held virtually, the celebration was on the theme "Fostering Multilingualism for Inclusion in Education and Society". We also collaborated with Nayram Language Center to celebrate the day with an online Zoom Meeting. Participants were treated with Various performances which were done in our local languages Twi, Ewe, Ga, Sefwi, Kyripon & Larteh.

WORLD PRESS FREEDOM DAY 3rd MAY

A symposium was held with the Ghana Institute of Journalism with the theme "Information as a Public Good," which serves as a call to affirm the importance of cherishing information as a public good, and exploring what can be done in the production, distribution, and reception of content to strengthen journalism, and to advance transparency and empowerment while leaving no one behind.

PROGRAMME AREA HIGHLIGHTS_ COMMUNICATION & INFORMATION

MEDIA AND INFORMATION LITERACY 24-31 OCTOBER

The Commission joined Penplusbytes, DW-Akademie, Ghana Institute of Journalism, Department of School of Communication, University of Ghana, Legon as partners in the celebration of the week from the 24th to the 31st of October 2021, which was on the theme "Media and Information Literacy for All". As part of activities, a film titled 'Rumours' by Penplusbytes and Farmhouse Production was launched to get people to appreciate information.

UNIVERSAL ACCESS TO INFORMATION 28th SEPTEMBER

Along with the Right to Information Commission, the UNESCO Accra Office and other partners held a public forum to commemorate the day on. The forum was on the theme "Right to Information Act, 2019(Act 989): A tool to ensure transparency, good governance, and sustainable development in learning international cooperation".

OUTLOOK FOR 2022

Next Year, we expect to continue delivering on our mandate. In addition to our usual work of conferences, committees, government advisory and liaison and coordination, we look forward to 2022 for the following two

A NEW ACT

We look forward to completing processes for the legislative Act for the Commission which will allow us, inter alia to roll out our strategic plan.

A NEW STRATEGIC PLAN

Our 5-year strategic plan 2022-2026 is set to kick off next year. We will focus on IMPACT, INFLUENCE, and INSTITUTIONAL STRENGTHENING. Our strategic Plan and full annual report can be found on our website.

We look forward to your continued support in the coming year!

Contact us at

Ground Floor

Ministry of Education Building

Starlets 91 Road, Accra

Tel: +233 302 960 820 | +233 302 666 042

Email: info@unescoghana.gov.gh

www.unescoghana.gov.gh

@f unescoghananatcom | unescoghnatcom

unesco

Ghana Commission